

7/3/1897
P. 6, C 3

	SOME BATH STREETS.
Patriotic streets,	Lincoln and Washington.
Pleasant streets,	Summer and Pleasant.
A cool street,	Winter.
A clean street,	Bath.
Shady streets,	Elm, Maple, Vine, Linden, Pine, Chestnut, Oak, Willow, Cedar and Grove.
A jewel of a street,	Pearl.
A light street,	Beacon.
Industrious streets,	Mechanic, Commercial and Ferry.
An elevated street,	High.
An oriental street,	Crescent.
A marine street,	Water.
A lovely street,	Court.
Intellectual streets,	Academy and School.
Horticultural streets,	Floral and Garden and Plum Lane.
An Italian street,	Milan.
Suggesting Gotham,	Bowery.
A coquettish street,	Arch.
A rocky street,	Granite.
A royal street,	King.
Geographical streets,	West, North and South.
For the seasons,	Spring, Summer and Winter. (You can get a Fall out of most any of 'em if you ride a bike.)
A free street,	Liberty.
A birdy street,	Robbins.
Colored streets,	Green and White.
A street for sport,	Hunt.
An official street,	Marshall.
A National street,	Union.

V.F. STREETS